SETTINGS PAGE

The image is a screenshot of a web browser displaying the DM.com website. The browser's address bar shows the URL "http://www.DM.com/". The website's header is split into a red section on the left with a home icon and the text "DM", and a cyan section on the right with a "History" button, a search bar, a "New Decision" button with a pencil icon, and a user profile icon. On the left side of the page, there is a sidebar menu with a grey header "Account Settings" and two items: "Akim@456.com" and "Privacy set to Public". The main content area is divided into two sections. The top section is for changing the email, with labels "Old Email", "New Email", and "Confirm new Email" next to input fields, and a "Change Email" button. The bottom section is for changing the password, with labels "Old Password", "New Password", and "Confirm new password" next to input fields, and a "Change Password" button. Below the password fields, there is a "Privacy Public" toggle switch which is currently turned on, with a note stating "Disabling privacy will not allow anyone to see your decisions".
